

John Simon Braddy

John Simon Braddy (15 Mar 1885 – 24 Jan 1954) and Helen Rachail Ida Eldora Busbee (29 May 1894 – 5 Sept 1943) were married in Walton County, Florida, on 7 May 1911. Thereafter they lived in Chattooga County, Georgia. In 1923, the family moved to Waycross, Georgia, where John worked for and retired from the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad as a Coach Builder/Carpenter.

Undated photograph, Walton County, Florida

Standing: Tillman Ross Braddy, James Cooper Braddy, John Simon Braddy

Sitting: Julia Francis Braddy, Seaborn Luton Braddy

Circa 1911, Walton County, Florida

Atlantic Coast Line Coach Builders

John Simon Braddy is the man sitting in the front row, third from the left, with his hands clasped.

Circa 1930, Waycross, Georgia

Brothers

John Simon Braddy, b. 1885, d. 1954, Waycross, Georgia

James Cooper Braddy, b. 1887, d. 1970, Tampa, Florida

Tillman Ross Braddy, b. 1890, d. 1974, Washington, D.C.

Undated photograph, Waycross, Georgia

John and Rachail Braddy
Circa 1942, location unknown

John Simon Braddy, Waycross, Ga.

John Simon Braddy with His Bible

Undated photograph, Waycross, Georgia